

Mother with daughter strapped to her back thrown into well

From Chidi Nnadi, Enugu

THE people of Ijo-Ozalla in Igbo-Etiti Local Government Area of Enugu State are still at a loss on how Uchenna Nweze, a mother and her daughter, Ukamaka, who was strapped to her back were thrown into a well where they eventually died.

The Enugu Police Command, which confirmed the incident, through the Police Public Relations Officer, Mr. Eb-ere Amaraizu, said already investigations have begun to unravel the circumstances surrounding the gruesome death of mother and daughter.

Amaraizu said the police are trying hard to apprehend perpetrators of the dastardly act.

He disclosed that their operatives have already taken no fewer than four suspects who are now helping the police in their investigations.

"It was gathered that on November 9, a woman, identified as one Uche Nweze and her daughter, also identified as one Ukamaka from Ijo-ozalla in Igboetiti Local Government Area of Enugu State allegedly fell into a well and died.

"However, the corpses have been recovered and deposited at Zim Uzo Hospital Mortuary Igbo-etiti for post mortem examination," Amaraizu said.

Ndigo bail Duhari over ministerial portfolios