

Four robbers meet Waterloo in gun duel with detectives

From Emmanuel Ogoigbe Warri

FOUR suspected deadly armed bandits were killed at the weekend by the police during exchange of fire in Warri, Delta State. Daily Sun gathered that the four robbery suspects met their Waterloo after series of robbery incident which they were alleged to have mastermind.

The gang was fingered in the last Sunday robbery where about six stores were robbed.

It was learnt that the bandits have been terrorising residents of Warri metropolis.

Consequently, residents in "B" Division axis are applauding the effort of the police team led by the Divisional Police Officer (DPO) CSP Anietie Eyoh who they described as God-sent to bring peace to the hitherto flash point area.

"We are happy with the zeal and courage of the "B" Division headed by the DPO, CSP Eyoh who arrived middle of this year and has been able to ensure that the people sleep with their two eyes closed," they said.

Meanwhile, six suspected kidnappers are presently being investigated at the 'A' Division over their role in series of cult activities in the area.
