Corpse found at prayer mountain in Ondo

From Bamigbola Gbolagunte, Akure

(14) THE corpse of an unidentified man was yesterday found without head in Amese, a suburb of Akure, the Ondo State Capital.

Residents of the community who discovered the lifeless body lying beside a prayer mountain in the community reported the incident to the police at the Ijapo Police station, Akure.

A source in the area said the worshippers who went to pray found the headless body of the man at the base of the mountain.

It was gathered that the incident prevented the worshippers from holding their usual morning prayer on the mountain.

A source said the police allegedly detained those who went to report the matter before sending a team of policemen to the area to evacuate the deceased.
