Shi'ites allege death of 2 members in Kaduna prison

• It's not true -Police

From Sola Ojo,
Kaduna

MEMBERS of Islamic Movement of Nigeria (IMN) popularly known as Shi'ite yesterday alleged that two, out of 40 members who sustained bullet injuries during last week's clash between the sect and men of Nigerian Army in Zaria, have died in Kaduna prison.

The allegation was contained in a statement signed by President of the sect's media forum, Ibrahim

Musa. They further alleged that their colleagues died as a result of their inability to access medical help.

In a swift reaction, Police Public Relations Officer, Kaduna Police Command, DSP Zubair Abubakar, through a telephone call said they were not aware of the incident.

Abubakar said: "We don't have anything to do with such allegation. We are not aware of anything like that so there is nothing to confirm from the police here in

Kaduna."

Regardless, Ibrahim further stated that Kaduna State Government has taken over the destruction of all the properties of IMN located across Zaria, adding that it has destroyed the remaining parts of the Hussainiyya and the Fudiyya Islamic Centre at Dan Magaji.
