EBONYI State Police Command is battling to unravel the circumstances surrounding the death of a young man in Effium, Ohaukwu Council Area of Ebonyi State. The deceased was said to have died while struggling to keep his relationship with his estranged lover.

The deceased (names withheld) allegedly died of complications resulting from injuries he sustained when he engaged a certain group of boys in physical fight over the said girlfriend.

It was gathered that the deceased had been dating the girl for years until the relationship turned sour when the deceased began to accuse her of having an affair with another person which led to open confrontation.
