

Crim

er girlfriend

been dating the rs until the rela-med sour when d began to accuse ng an affair with son which led to ntation.

The two lover boys it was gathered, had not engaged in open fight over the girl until last week when the deceased was allegedly attacked by his rival and his group. He was suspected to have sustained very serious internal injuries that led to his death.

The entire Effium community was thrown into confusion when the body of the deceased was found at the market place. The people were said to have fled the market to avoid police arrest.

However, policemen attached to Effium Police Division immediately evacuated the corpse of the victim, while three persons were arrested in connection with the incident.

Although, the prime suspect, the deceased's rival alleged to have confessed that he fought with the deceased, but denied knowing anything about his death.

The suspects have been transferred to the State Criminal Investigation Department, (SCID) Abakaliki, for further investigation while the body of the deceased had been deposited in an undisclosed mortuary.

ipeline vandals in police net we tional Petroleum Corporation heading to Ondo State to sell tus to track down and arrest the suspected thieves. He warned oil thieves to desist from the illicit business or face the wrath of nex, Olumese who was represented by the Lagos Sector Commander, S. Solomon Ubani said the squad arrested the sus