TWO suspected armed robbers were yesterday killed by vigilance group in Orhuwhorun, Delta State.

Daily Sun, gathered that the criminals snatched a tri-cycle from the owner at gun point and shot him. However, the victim who summoned courage raised the alarm that attracted people, including, a vigilance group who dealt with the gun-toting robbers.

Investigation revealed that the robbers who were daring in their mission confronted the angry mob.

However, nemesis caught up with them as they fell to the superior power of the vigilance group.

Meanwhile, police

from 'A' and 'B' Division have intensified effort at smoking out bad boys who harass innocent persons in the oil city.

Daily Sun learnt that increased patrol of strategic areas by the police has contributed to the peace currently being enjoyed in the city.

Similarly, the Area Commander, Warri, ACP Muazu Mohammed has warned parents to call their children to order, insisting that any miscreant caught disturbing the peace of the area would be severely dealt with.

Mauzu who condemned last week's civil disturbance by miscreants at Ekpan and Effurun, maintained that there would be no sacred cow in the war against cultists and criminals.
