Two killed in cult war

From Bamigbola Gbolagunte, Akure

TWO persons were yesterday feared killed in Ondo, Headquarters of Ondo West Local Government Area of Ondo state in a violent clash involving two rival cult groups.

The incident, which happened at Odojomu area of the town, caused serious pandemonium as residents fled the area.

A witness who spoke on the condition of anonymity said, a resident of the area identified as Segun Garbar allegedly led a group of cultists to the area.

It was gathered that the clash was an aftermath of an argument among the suspected cultists at a relaxation centre in the area.

It was gathered that Segun was shot by a member of a rival cult group during the argument.

Witnesses said the incident attracted the attention of the Police who made some arrests.

Also, economic activities were halted as shop owners and business operators hurriedly locked their stalls for safety.

When contacted, the Divisional Police Officer in charge of Enuowa police station, Mr Kunle Omisakin, a Chief Superintendent of Police (CSP), confirmed the incident.

He said some persons have been arrested in connection with the incident, while investigation was ongoing.
