

still under investigation."

Man hacks wife to death

From Tony Osauzo, Benin

A man has hacked his wife to death at Eyea quarters in Uhunmwode Local Government Area of Edo State.

However, operatives of the Edo State Police Command are on a manhunt for the man, simply identified as Henry.

The suspect was said to have killed his 30-year old wife, Patience Ekukpe at their residence at N019, Oloko Street, Eyea quarters.

The suspect was said to have fled after butchering his wife in the presence of their child.

He reportedly used cutlass to hack her on the face, arms and chest.

According to sources, the killing was as a result of some unresolved matrimonial dispute.

Confirming the incident, Edo State Police Command spokesman, DSP Osifo Abiodun, said efforts were on to apprehend the suspect.

HOT LINES: Do you have any information on crime? Call 08054682252 08109473658