In another incident of abduction on the same day at the Ankpa area of Kogi, detectives at the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID) in Lokoja, the state capital, are deploying their skills to unravel the circumstances surrounding the death of a 25-year-old man identified as Besuri Mohammed, whose corpse was discovered along the Enjena-Makurdi road on Monday.

The deceased was said to have been offered a ride by unknown persons in an unregistered Volkswagen Salon car at Afor Gangam village in Ankpa Local Government Area of the state, before his lifeless body was found on the next day.

It was gathered that a police patrol team attached to Enjena Division which picked up his remains, discovered a bullet wound on his chest and recovered an empty cartridge from the scene, fuelling suspicion that he might have died of injury sustained from gunshot.

When contacted for comments on the incidents, police spokesman for Kogi State Command, ASP Williams Odeh, said he had not been fully briefed, but promised to avail Daily Sun of the details after making necessary checks.
