Daily Sun learnt that Rebecca was an orphan and in her early 30s. She had lived in the Remembrance hotel for two years as a sex worker. And she used her earnings to cater for her younger siblings that live in Ikeja. "Rebecca was a very calm and gentle person," many of the sex workers told Daily Sun. "She minded her business and did not like getting into trouble with anyone here. It's so sad something like this happened to her and to us all. This kind of thing has never happened in this hotel before."

The incident was reported at Olosan Police Station, Mushin which made arrangements to deposit her body in the morgue.

val cult groups said to be involved in supremacy battle.

Last week Sunday, members of suspected cultists struck at Ikokoro/Sakamo area of Ilorin and killed a boy simply identified as Wasiu.

The latest bloody cult clash occurred at Babako, Ita-Amodu and Agbo-Oba areas of Ilorin metropolis between Saturday's night and 4am on Sunday morning.

The development, according to sources, created tension in the affected areas while residents scamped for safety. Witness told journalists that, at the end of the clash, four persons including a 20-year-old boy were shot by the cultists.

It was gathered that, the members of "Aiye" fraternity first struck at Baboko area of Ilorin around 9.30 p.m on Saturday night and allegedly killed two persons.

It was further gathered that, after the operation at Baboko, the suspected cultists at Baboko area headed for Ita-Amodu and Agbo-Oba areas of Ilorin on revenge mission.

This group also allegedly killed two persons in the areas. When contacted, the spokesman of the state police command, Ajayi Okasanmi, who confirmed the incident said that, "I can confirm one person to you that has been killed by the suspected cultists and this happened at Babaoko area of Ilorin. Men of the state police command has taken his corpse to the University of Ilorin Teaching Hospital (UITH)".

Ajayi who warned cultists to stay away from the state said, "henceforth, any one caught will be made to face the full wrath of the law."
