

got the information late. The police got the information one hour after the incident. As at now, we have three suspects in our cell. They were picked at that hotel. There are indications that they have connection with the kidnappers, working on with them. We are after the criminals. We must get to the root of this recurring kidnap. We do not know why they are always kidnapping him. Three attempts have been made on him. We do not know? We must get to the root of the matter."

Man stabbed to death with broken bottle

By Christopher Oji

Tragedy struck, yesterday at the Morogbo area of Lagos metropolis, when a man, Kamoli Isiaka was stabbed dead with a broken bottle.

The suspect, simply identified as Azeez, fled the scene after committing the dastardly act.

It was gathered that the deceased and the suspects were quarrelling over an undisclosed issue.

It was gathered that the quarrel degenerated into a fight and Azeez allegedly stabbed Isiaka with a broken bottle in the neck.

A Police source said the victim died on the way to the Hospital and the corpse was deposited at the morgue.

The Lagos State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Dolapo Badmos said Isiaka was stabbed dead in yet to be determined circumstance.

• She said the police have stepped up manhunt for the fleeing suspect.

Badmos warned that the Police would not tolerate any act of violence in the state.

going n

Acc

ambush

Sports

their vi

Thou

they w

dead a

"The

sighting

ed, they could n

hit. The

and wh

patriate

Ano

as secur

the road

was an

Private

Some

Yenago

morning

A Hi

like a n

armed n

erywh

colleagu

The s

Asinin

are not a

Buts

lice have