

have between October 30, 2014 and May 6, 2015 converted to their personal use N346,844,680.00 property of N11.4million into the account of Liquid garden ventures ltd on September 29 2014.

Suspected robbers arrested with stolen cables in Lagos

Many feared killed, scores Jukun communal clash

From Rose Ejembi,
Makurdi

SEVERAL persons were feared killed with many injured and houses razed after a heavy fighting erupted yesterday between the Jukun and the Tiv at Angbaye community, a Jukun settlement along Makurdi / Gboko road, in Benue State.

Daily Sun gathered that the crisis, which started as a result of disagreement over a farm, degenerated to an ethnic war as both tribes picked up arms against each other.

Sources around the area told our correspondent that there was heavy shooting in the area, even as they feared that many people might have either been killed or injured in the encounter.

Following the crisis, many members of the warring communities which is not far from the Nigerian Air Force (NAF) Base are now fleeing

Herdsman killed in Ondo

4 police