Robbers kill Inspector, Corporal

From George Onyejiuwa, Owerri

TWO police officers, attached to the Imo State Police Command, Owerri, were shot dead yesterday by suspected armed robbers at Umuagwo in Ohaji/Egbema Local Government Area of the state.

The police officers, an Inspector and a Corporal were attacked by the bandits close to the Niger Delta Development Corporation (NDDC) building at Umuagwo while their riffles were carted away.

The State Command Police Public Relation Officer, (PPRO), Mr. Andrew Enwerem, who confirmed the incident, said the officers were attacked and killed by bandits who escaped afterwards.

The Police spokesman, who did not disclose the names of the officers, said two suspects have been arrested in connection with the incident while investigation is ongoing.
