SSS3 student killed in Nnewi

From David Onwuchkwa,
Nnewi

A Senior Secondary School student, Nnewi High School Anambra State was yesterday shot dead by suspected armed robbers.

Sources claimed that the hoodlums had attacked the hostel around 1am and the victim who was the only son of his parent ran out of the hostel possibly to escape when he met his untimely death.

A youth corp member serving in the school, who spoke on anonymity said the moment he perceived that there was suspicious movement in the school compound, he made a distress call to the police but before they could respond the damage was already done.

It was gathered that the remains of the victim was taken to an undisclosed hospital while policemen from the Area Command, Nnewi and other security agencies were seen at the school premises.
