

5 die in C'River cult war

From JUDEX
OKORO, Calabar

① It was a bloody evening yesterday, in Calabar as a leading cult leaders was gunned down by a rival group.

This brings to five, cult members that have been killed in supremacy battle between Klans and Axe confraternities.

② The two rival groups are said to have engaged in a silent war leading to killing of their members in the last one month.

③ While the Axe confraternity were said to have killed a member of Klans few months ago, along Atamunu Street in Calabar South, the Klans in retaliation, were said to have killed about three members of Axe.

④ The killing of one of the leading members of Axe, popularly called 'legend,' brings to four the number of persons killed by the rival cult groups along Palm Street by Mayne Avenue, Calabar.

The late 'legend' was said to have participated in the lingering feud between the two cult groups.
