

violence and other acts capable of destroying the relative clash.

By Christopher Oji

gaged the robbers in a gun
duel and killed one.

The robbers also shot a policeman. The robbers were said to have carried their injured member away on their motorcycle.

The Divisional Police Officer for Ajegunle, CSP Aminu Gusau, was said to have led his anti-robbery squad who laid ambush at all the escape routes within his division.

The hoodlums rode along Oregie area, under Ajegunle police station where they abandoned their wounded colleague. A witness, Adetunji

Three of the suspects were later arrested by the police.

When a search was conducted on one of the suspects, Ohobor, three live bullets were found on him.

However, the death of a passer-by, has caused a protest by the youths who accused a hospital of delay in treating him.

The quick intervention of policemen from the Rapid Response Squad (RRS) and Ajegunle division saved the situation as the angry youths took to their heels to evade arrest.

As at Press time, soldiers attached to Operation MESA and policemen of the RRS were at the scene.

The three suspects have been transferred to the Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS), Ikeja, for further investigation.

vaju,

Akata alongside with a 12-year-old daughter of her neighbour went to a village.

It was gathered that the deceased was a popular patient medicines seller in the area who was going for business transaction at a neighbour-

She was ambushed. Her corpse was dismembered and her eight months foetus was removed.

A reliable source who declined to mention her name, said the 12-year-old girl was also slaughtered.

has been
body dis-
ted ritu-
age near Govern-
State.
ed that