

Newly wed drown

From Bamigbola
Gbolagunte, Akure

---

TRAGEDY struck in Akure, the Ondo State capital, Monday evening as Dare, a commercial motorcycle operator got drown in river, a month after his wedding.

The deceased was said to be returning home after the day's work when the incident happened.

According to a source, Dare got married last month and just relocated to his present house.

Daily Sun gathered that the corpse was found after a day at another river in Akure.

The incident has thrown residents of Danjuma area where the deceased lived into mourning since the incident occurred.