

drawing board. First, they have to report, they should call his number.

Fisherman kills

By Christopher Oji

A fisherman, Samson, has beaten another to death at Itegbin waterway, in Ajamgbadi area of Lagos.

The suspect and the deceased, Suleman Kareem were fishing near Itegbin community before argument ensued between them over the control of the area.

It was gathered that other fishermen intervened and tried to resolve the dispute, but Samson and Kareem persisted in their quarrel.

A witness, Kerewe said the argument degenerated into a serious fight and Samson allegedly gave Kareem a serious blow that knocked him down.

According to Kerewe, Kareem hit his head on a wooden boat and started vomiting blood. "We tried to rejected him.

In his words: "I was accom-

They must pay me back with that car", he said.

• Suspected armed robber arrested by the Police Command.

another over position

vive him but he died few minutes later. We arrested Samson and handed him over to the police"

The State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Dolapo Badmos, who confirmed the incident said the Divisional Police Officer (DPO), in charge of Ajamgbadi police station while on routine patrol at the area, saw a crowd and went to the scene.

Badmos said: "On getting to the scene, the DPO saw a dead man and inquired on what happened. He was told that Samson, a fisherman beat another fellow fisherman, Kareem to death, he arrested him."

She said preliminary investigation showed that the two fishermen were not member of any cult and were only fighting over an undisclosed issue.

She said the body has been deposited at the Badagry General Hospital morgue while the suspect would be handed over to the homicide section of the State Criminal Investigation Department (SCID), for detailed investigation.

Meanwhile, the Command has foiled an attempt by suspected cultists to raid O of the state.

Badmos said gence report that to unleash terror down to Ikorodu

She said, on g cultists had gather to launch attack.

She said, on s hoodlums took to

According to he arrested and have the Special Anti R for interrogation.