

The treasurer is his nephew. The public relations officer (PRO) is his brother, the task force chairman is his nephew, the store keeper is from the same town with him and the ward chairman is his boy."

Kaduna killings: Police confirm 6 dead in fresh attack

From Sola Ojo, Kaduna

BARELY two weeks after alleged Fulani herdsmen invasion that left 12 persons dead in three villages of Godogodo Chieftdom, Jema'a Local Government area of Kaduna State, Police in the state has confirmed killing of another six persons in another village within the same chieftdom.

Police Public Relations Officer, ASP Aliyu Usman told Daily Sun that the killings took place at a distant spot from where its men currently patrol following the previous attacks in the community.

"Yes, we can confirm six dead. If you are in the area you will observe that our men are there doing what they have been asked to do. It is unfortunate that this happened outside the three villages that were previously attacked. I want to appeal to people in the area to avoid isolated areas. We are doing all we can to protect the people in the state. But, people, too, should help us by cooperating with us," said the PPRO.

The killings, which took place between Saturday and Sunday night by suspected armed Fulanis at Golkofa village in Godogodo chieftdom, was also confirmed by Caretaker Committee Chairman of the LG, Dr. Bege Katuka, adding that bodies of the victims were recovered in the bush which is about two kilometers away from the village.

He a
ernme
over three

U

From
Calab

A sile
at the bar (U
Vice-C
bursar
officer
protes

Dai
since
year a
the in institu
forms
the su
mana

The
has c
due p financ
in ap
of fu