

Robbery suspect shot dead

From Okey Sampson,
Aba

POLICE in Aba, Abia State at the weekend shot dead a suspected armed robber who was in the gang that earlier killed a barber and injuring others.

The hoodlums stormed JK Nwagiri Street along St Paul's Street, Umungasi, Aba. They attacked the residents who are mainly students of the Abia State Polytechnic, Aba.

They stole valuables during the house to house raid, killing a barber called Abraham. The robbers also injured two students of the state polytechnic.

While the operation was going on, the police were alerted. Security operatives killed one of the robbers called Rowland Davidson Iweka.

His corpse, it was learnt, had been deposited at a mortuary in Aba.

Some of the items recovered from the hoodlums include N22,000 assorted phones, one HP Laptop, one DVD player, one pump action; riffle, two ladies' handbags and three expended bullet cartridges.