

Son stabs dad to death

- For allegedly wearing his clothes

From Ahmed Abubakar, Dutse

FOR allegedly wearing his clothes, Muhammadu, aged 25 has stabbed his 50-year-old father, Ahmadu Babare to death.

The tragedy occurred yesterday in Mai Rakumi village in Malammadori Local Government Area of Jigawa State after the angry son saw his father with the clothes he had kept strictly for special occasions.

Trouble started when he sighted his father dressed in the clothes he had kept for special occasions. He hit his father with a big stick.

When the victim refused to remove them despite several threats, he stabbed his father in the belly.

On realizing the impact of his action, he fled into the bush before he could be arrested. The father lost a lot of blood and died before getting to the hospital.

The state's police spokesman, SP Abdul Jinjiri, confirmed the incident and assured that the culprit would be charged to court.
