

Police kill taxi driver as stray bullet hits 4-year-old

- They are not policemen – PPRO

From Tony John, Port Harcourt

OPERATIVES of the Special Anti-Robbery Squad (SARS) of the police have allegedly shot dead a taxi driver and wounded a four-year-old boy in Ogbogoro community, Obio/Akpor Local Government Area of Rivers State.

Daily Sun gathered that the incident angered youths of Ogbogoro community leading to their invasion of Ozuoba Police Divisional Headquarters in the area to protest.

The alleged SARS officers were said to have stormed the community, within the vicinity of Ogbogoro market square, and started shooting sporadically.

A source, identified as Ohwonda Michael, said the shootings caused pandemonium, as people scampered for safety, leading to injuries.

Michael noted that a stray bullet had hit the little boy, who was later rushed to hospital for treatment. According to him, the SARS operatives escaped when the community youths rushed
