

lives of a score of students of Government Girls Secondary School, Kano, who were returning home after participating in a national quiz competition, and the Akure-Ore-Ondo artery which in August 2014 was the scene of the tragic accident involving an Ondo Zonal Pastor of Redeemed Church, Pastor Dominic Akinseye, his wife and eight others who perished on their way home after the monthly Holy Ghost Service at the Redemption Camp.

Onukaba's death is but another