21-year-old girl found dead at riverbank

From Sylvanus Viashima,
Jalingo

A 21-year-old girl, Faith Danjuma, of Mayo Gwoi area of Jalingo, has been found dead by Mayo Gwoi river.

According to the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Taraba State command, David Misal, who confirmed the incident, the girl's boyfriend, who is at large, is the prime suspect in the crime.

He also revealed that two people had been arrested in connection with the girl's death.

A family source revealed that the deceased left home at midnight, against the advice of her mother. Her corpse was found the next day by the riverbank.

The source said there were signs that the lady was strangled with a chain, stabbed and thrown into the river with both hands and legs tied behind her.
