THE Enugu State Police Command yesterday said its operatives arrested one Roma from Ohodo town, in Igboetiti Local Government Area of the state, over the death of his brother on July 17, 2017.

The command, in a statement signed by the Police Public Relations Officer, Ebere Amaraizu, a Superintendent of Police, said its operatives had begun full-scale investigations into the alleged killing.

"It was gathered that a misunderstanding had ensued over a piece of land and economic tree between the deceased, identified as Fidelis, and the brother, Roma, the suspect," he said.

According to Amaraizu, Roma was alleged to have hit his brother on the head with a plank, leaving him unconscious.

Fidelis was rushed to a nearby hospital, where he was confirmed dead by the doctors.

Amaraizu said the police arrested Roma alongside their mother, Theresa, who was alleged to have invited the deceased from Port Harcourt for a family meeting shortly before he died.

He said the two suspects are helping the police in their investigations, just as the deceased's body has been deposited at Zim-Uzo Hospital Mortuary Ohodo.
