A 27-year-old man, Kalu Okoro, was shot dead yesterday by a vigilante at Cubic Lane in Awada, Idemili North Local Government Area of Anambra State.

It was gathered that trouble started when one Anechukwu Anagor sought the services of vigilantes to arrest some thugs who were invited by his in-law, Nonso Nwafor, to beat him up over a dispute between him and his wife.

A witness said that, in the process of arresting the hoodlums, Godwin Obaji, from another street, came to the scene and started contending with a vigilante, who was in possession of a pump-action gun, in a bid to stop them from arresting the hoodlums, when the tragedy occurred.

Anambra State Public Relations Officer, ASP Nkeiruka Nwode, who confirmed the incident, said that in the process of struggling with the vigilante, his gun exploded and killed Kalu instantly. She said that two persons have been arrested in connection with the murder and would be charged to court.
