At least, five persons, including a policeman, have been reportedly killed and many others still missing after suspected herdsmen attacked Yogbo village in Guma Local Government Area of Benue State, on Saturday night.

Guma, the home local government of Governor

Samuel Ortom and Logo, the local government of immediate past governor Gabriel Sinswam, had been under several attacks by herdsmen since December 31 till date.

Daily Sun gathered that the suspected herdsmen numbering over 200 stormed the village at about 8:00pm that fateful night and started shooting sporadically killing everyone in sight.
