

The 2nd Assembly which now is to rescue the abducted girls alive.

OPC members allegedly kill student in Ekiti

FROM WOLE BALOGUN, ADO EKITI

A prominent member of the Oodua People's Congress (OPC), in Ekiti State, Dele Olorunfemi, has been detained over alleged murder of a student, Faramo Tope in Ikere-Ekiti.

The deceased, who was said to be a student of University of Nigeria, Nsukka (UNN), College of Education, Ikere-Ekiti Campus, was allegedly murdered thereabouts 9.30 pm on Wednesday.

Residents in the area claimed that a commercial motorcyclist was conveying Tope with another passenger when he was hit by bullets allegedly fired by some OPC men on patrol led by Olorunfemi.

The tragic incident reportedly took place along Winners' Chapel Road in Oke Osun area of the Ikere, but the remains of the deceased were dumped in a bush at Ona Owuro Road behind College Demonstration School.

Saturday Sun checks revealed that the commercial motorbike rider, who claimed to have witnessed the murder of his passenger and identified the suspects, reported the incident at Anaye Police Station in Uro Quarters of the town.

The report of the alleged murder led to the arrests of Olorunfemi and another suspect, who was simply identified as, "Bebe", while another suspect, identified as, "Abule" is at large.