

Youths butcher serial rapist

From Tony John, Port Harcourt

A young man, identified simply as Boyoyo, has been gruesomely murdered around Mile 2, Diobu, in the Port Harcourt City Local Government Area of Rivers State. Daily Sun gathered that he was murdered in his apartment at 61, Adelebu Street, Mile 2, Diobu, Port Harcourt.

According to some sources within the area who spoke on the condition of anonymity, the assailants, who were suspected to be members of a dreaded cult group, removed the intestines of the deceased. It was learnt that the victim was a native of Ibaa community in Emohua Local Government Area of Rivers State, and was found dead by his neighbours.

They alleged that Boyoyo was a notorious rapist who had several rape cases on his hands. They added that his immediate neighbours had also taken the corpse to a morgue.

A senior police officer at Mile 1 Division, Diobu, who confirmed the incident, said that, before his death yesterday, Boyoyo was involved in several rape cases and other criminal activities in and outside the area.

The officer, who spoke under strict confidentiality, said investigation into the activities and death of the deceased had commenced, while the body had been deposited in the mortuary.
