Katsina: 11 killed in farmers, herders' clash

ELEVEN people have died following a clash between farmers and herders in Gora village of Safana Local Government area of Katsina state.

The incident happened on Tuesday night, when a farmer working on his farm was said to have resisted a herder's invasion and was killed in the process.

It was gathered that residents of the town later mobilised and killed the herder, which led to the invasion of the town by bandits from the Rugu Forest on the village when the news spread.

Spokesman of Katsina Police Command, Gambo Isah, confirmed the incident and said security personnel have already been mobilised to the town with reinforcements from the Inspector General of Police, mobile police from 27 PMS and three additional units from the command.
