

2 die, another 2 injured in Ogun auto crash

A GHASTLY road accident at the Idi-Iroko express road has claimed the lives of two persons and left two injured.

The Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC) disclosed that the mishap which occurred yesterday around 5:30 pm, involved two vehicles around Animashaun Estate on Idiroko road in Ogun State. Mr Adekunle Oguntoyinbo of the Sango-Ota Unit Command of FRSC told the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) that a Mack Truck with registration number AAA 330 XX heading towards Sango-Ota from Idi Iroko lost control due to brake failure, crossed the road divider and rammed into a Mazda Car marked AAA 152 BK. "The corpses of the victims had been deposited at Ifo General Hospital, while the survivors are receiving treatment at General Hospital, Sango-Ota," he said.

He advised motorists to ensure that their vehicles were in proper conditions and be cautious during the Yuletide in order to avoid unnecessary loss of lives.
