

Soldiers destroy more terrorists' camps in Borno

20th June 2019

0
SHARES

18
VIEWS

Share on Facebook

Share on Twitter

Molly Kilete, Abuja

The Nigerian Army has said that its troops have killed more members of the Boko Haram group and recovered arms and ammunitions from them.

Acting director Army public relations ,Colonel Saghir Musa , said the soldiers also rescued two women and three children held captive by the terrorists.

He said : “Troops of 112 Task Force Battalion on clearance operations in conjunction with Civilian Joint Task Force, have neutralised more members of the crouching Boko Haram/ISWAP terrorists, when troops raided a cluster of recently established camps along Kajeri village on Tuesday

.“A thorough search of the camps resulted in the recovery of two dane gun ,eight cartridges ,two torch lights and one Bicycle.

“ Two women and three children suspected to have been kidnapped by the terrorists were rescued by the troops around the bushes of Kajeri and Saleri villages.The rescued women and children will be handed over to the appropriate agency for further action.

“The camps were destroyed and burnt down by the troops, while they advanced further and cleared the surrounding dispersed localities in the general area of Kajeri and Saleri axis of the State”.

Rapheal