The Kano State Fire Service has confirmed the death of three persons following an early morning fire yesterday at a flat at Gayawa Tsohowa, in Ungogo Local Government Area of the state.

Alhaji Saidu Mohammed, spokesman for the service, disclosed yesterday.

Mohammed said that the victims included a two-year-old baby girl.

“We received a distress call in the early hours of Wednesday from Malam Mudassir Abdullahi at about 3.57 am that there was a fire outbreak at a dwelling house.

“Upon receiving the information, we quickly dispatched a fire engine to the scene at about
