Nemesis has caught up with Shauibu Mohammed and Gyang Davou, two members of a dreaded group of POS robbers, who trademark was to kill their victims in pure, gruesome, Mafia-style way, after stealing from them.

Until the ended for them following their arrest, they had made life a perennial fear for the residents of Kufang, Miango, Dadin Kowa and Zaramaganda in Jos South Local Government Area of Plateau State.

The suspects had for long terrorized POS operators within the Jos-Bukuru metropolis. They robbed and killed victims, particularly those they believed would recognize them after the robbery.

In one pathetic incident, when Shauibu and his dreaded group stormed the shop of Alihu Musa, a POS operator on Kufang Road, Jos, he attempted to resist them, and they shot him on the leg. The gang then proceeded to ransack the place and took about N200,000 in cash. Done with the robbery, they then shot him dead and left him in a pool of his blood. It was pure, gruesome, cold-blooded Mafia-style killing.
