

Trailer crushes traffic officer in Kano

From Desmond Mgboh, Kano

SPOKESMAN of Kano State Road and Traffic Agency (KAROTA), Nabili Abubakar K/Na'isa, yesterday, disclosed that a trailer truck crushed an officer of the agency to death around Mega Filling Station, Hotoro area, on with sniper

only to return and discovered the lifeless body of her baby. The corpse of the baby has been deposited at the morgue of Olabisi Onabanjo Teaching Hospital, Sagamu for autopsy, while the suspect has been transferred to the homicide section of the State Criminal Investigation and Intelligence Department (SCIID) for further investigation and prosecution.

Saturday.

He explained that the officer, Abdulrahaman, cried for help all the way to the hospital but was pronounced dead at the Murtala Muhammad Specialists Hospital.

He disclosed that witnesses prevented the driver from escaping and handed him over to the police for further investigation.

He noted in the statement that the death had increased the number of officers of KAROTA killed by motorists in the last few days; specifying that on October 29, Ahmad Tijjani was knocked down by a motorist.

The Managing Director of the agency, Baffa Dan'agundi regretted the loss and extended his condolences to the family of the late officer. He also warned that the law would catch up with anyone who engages in committing such crime.