

Barber drowns in pool

From George Onyejiuwa,
Owerri

---

TRAGEDY struck Tuesday evening when a 34-year-old man who operates a barbering shop at Umugakwo bus stop drowned in the swimming pool of a hotel owned by a popular politician located at Toronto Junction, Umuoba Uratta in Owerri North council of the state.

Daily Sun reliably learnt that the deceased, who was identified as Uche, had gone with two ladies to the hotel, which is close to his shop for some relaxation.

It was further learnt that the deceased having had about six bottles of beer with his lady friends had decided to for swim.

---