

Home National

---

28th April 2020 in

0

SHARES VIEWS

Stanley Uzoaru, Owerri

The Imo State police command is still battling to unravel the mystery behind the murder of a police inspector, Haruna Kaura attached to Government House, Owerri by unidentified persons believed to be hoodlums.

According to a statement by the State police spokesperson, Orlando Ikeokwu, the deceased whose lifeless body was discovered after a distress call at about 8: am close to Shell camp Police station and Government House was seen clutching his ID card in his palm while his trousers was pulled down to his knees.

Also, Ikeokwu revealed that his service pistol was taken away from him while signs of torture was noticed around his neck and back region.

Meanwhile, the corpse according to Ikeokwu has been deposited at the morgue while the command intensify on its investigation.