“We received a distress call on May 13 from one Malam Ibrahim Ya’u at about 3.32pm that the

“On receiving the information, we quickly sent our rescue team to the scene at about 4pm,” he said.

Mohammed said that the bodies had been handed over to the head of Dakata village, Malam Bala Ibrahim.

The spokesman advised the general public to call the fire service on time in an emergency to save lives and property. He also called on parents and ward heads to enlighten their wards and subjects to refrain from bathing in ponds and rivers.
