bandits, arrest 3, recover arms in Kaduna

tions, Maj.-Gen. John Eneche, in a statement on Tuesday in Abuja, said the success was recorded during search and rescue/clearance operation carried out in conjunction with local vigilantes supported by close air support on the location.

Eneche explained that unconfirmed number bandits escaped with gun shots wounds after fierce encounter.

According to him, during the exploitation by the gallant troops, two magazines, 36 rounds of 7.62mm Special ammunition and two motorcycle were recovered.

"In the same vein, following credible intelligence on the criminal elements who escaped from the onslaught earlier, troops apprehended three of the criminal elements in Kujeni village.

Chudi Ozokolo and Robinson Odo, be-

"Currently the gallant troops have dominated the area with aggressive patrols to deny the criminal elements freedom of action." The Military High Command com-
