

Mile 12, Ketu: Haven for cultists, criminals in Lagos

16th August 2021 in Opinion

0

0
SHARES

54
VIEWS

Share on Facebook

Share on Twitter

Unless the Lagos State government and the police command act precisely and urgently, Mile 12 and Ketu areas would soon become Nigeria's crime capital.

Within a space of four days, August 1 and 4, at least seven people were killed in Mile 12 area alone. The orgy of killings started on Sunday, August 1, when assistant pastor of the Redeemed Christian Church of God (RCCG), Ibrahim, was gunned down during child dedication on the pulpit around 12 noon. The gunmen came with his photograph to ensure he was indeed their target.