A former caretaker chairman of Community Development Committee (CDC) in Obele community, Mr. Eze Anele, who is the deceased's uncle, was quoted as saying that the soldier was on his way home at about 10:30pm, on Saturday night, when he saw the members of OSPAC holding some of his relatives.

Anele disclosed that the victim alighted from the vehicle and approached the vigilance members to inquire the reason behind their action.

He stated that an argument ensued and one of OSPAC members reportedly shot Worehu on the chest and head, while two of his relatives sustained gunshot injuries.
