

Also, the Kebbi State Police Command, yesterday, confirmed that four of its officers were killed by the terrorists in Wars, Ngaski local government area of the state.

It was gathered that the terrorists stormed the Tomatoes company located in a village, Gafara, closed to Wars town, to kidnap the expatriates working in the factory.

While confirming the incident to Daily Sun via telephone chat, Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO) of the Command, Nafiu Abubakar, said that 10 of the expatriates were rescued to Yauri town by police officers.

It was gathered that a DPO identified as Umaru Muhammed Dakingari, a former ADC to former Kebbi state governor, Alhaji Saadu Nasamu Dakingari, attached to Nasako LGA in Niger state, was also killed by the terrorists after they fled Wars in Kebbi state.