

3 killed, 7 injured in soldier's shooting in Borno

From Timothy Olanrewaju Maiduguri

THREE persons including a child have been killed and seven others injured in an unprovoked shooting by a soldier at a town in Borno

A soldier reportedly opened fire yesterday at Mafa, a town located some 54 kilometres South East of Maiduguri, the state capital.

Theatre Commander, Joint Task Force Northeast, Operation Hadin Kai, Maj Gen Christopher Musa, confirmed the incident to Daily Sun but did not give details.

He described the incident as unfortunate and the action of the soldier unprofessional

He said the theatre has condoled with the families of the deceased while equally ensure

Obiano regains fre

From Fred Itua, Abuja

IMMEDIATE-past governor of Anambra State, Willie Obiano, has been released by the Economic and Financial Crimes Commission (EFCC), almost one week after he was arrested by the anti-graft agency, why attempting to catch a flight to the United States of America.

The Commission had initially denied Obiano an administrative bail last weekend, but made a U-treatment of the injured ones.

"We don't condone such indiscipline and we are sad the incident," he said.

turn on Monday and granted him bail, with stringent conditions.

Unable to meet some of the conditions, Obiano was held by the EFCC while his friends and associates, tried without success to secure his release.

Worried by the development, the leadership of All Progressives Grand Alliance (APGA), met with some leaders from Anambra State, to intervene.

It was gathered that Obiano finally met the conditions on