Our sources, who gave their names as Hembadoon and Terfa, disclosed that the three people were shot dead by the herdsmen while they were on their farm to harvest farm produce, on Monday.

Also, the Deeper Life pastor was said to have been shot dead by suspected herders while he was on his way to a religious programme at the Local Government Headquarters in Gbajimba, yesterday morning.

When contacted, Chairman of Guma LGA, Caleb Aba, confirmed the renewed attacks and killings in his council, saying four people were killed between Monday and yesterday in the two separate attacks.

“On Monday, three people, including two females and a man, went to fetch locust beans on their farm, at Nyivir and they were shot dead.

“Also, this morning (Tuesday), a pastor who was going to Gbajimba (headquarters of Guma) was killed around Waku village,” Aba said.
