

It was further gathered that two people were killed on Thursday evening at Tse-Tume in Turan council ward of Logo Local Government Area of the state.

According to a community leader from Logo LGA who did not want to be named for security reasons, the locals were killed while they were working on their farm.

The community leader who identified the deceased as Terkende Injarwua, and Mfaiga Ukor, said their remains had been recovered and buried on Friday.