Police Public Relations Officer in the state, DSP Toochukwu Ikenga, who confirmed the incident in a statement, said that the police operatives found the lifeless body of the victim and have, since, commenced investigation into the dastardly act.

The PPRO said that the deceased had been abducted from his residence about four days earlier, before his abductors went on to kill him.

“Today, 13/6/22, at about 10:20am, police operatives recovered a lifeless body at the roadside by Y Junction Nkwelle – Ezunaka.

“The victim was later identified as Ikechukwu Udeozor, who was abducted from his residence on 9/6/22. Meanwhile, an operation is still ongoing to apprehend the perpetrators,” the statement read.
