

... Ward collation agent, slumps, dies in Benue State

TRAGEDY struck at a Collation Center in Katsina Ala town, Benue State as a collation agent, slumped and died.

Late Eunoch Atshe had gone to ease himself few minutes that he resumed duty on Sunday, but did not return.

It was gathered that his colleagues who became worried that he was staying too long on the toilet, decided to look for him, only to discovered that he had died.

His uncle, a former Commissioner of Commerce and Industry Mr .Terfa Ihidan , confirmed that the deceased went outside to ease him self and was later found dead

He was from Mbacher Ward in Katsina Ala, the largest ward in the axis, but due to insecurity , the collation centre was moved to the main Katsina Ala town.

His colleagues were still in shock over the sudden death of a man who was with them few minutes ago .

Although, there is no official statement from his party, the People Democratic Party (PDP), or the family, but a colleague who pleaded anonymity as he was not supposed to speak with the press, said the body has been deposited in a mortuary .

Elections: Police arrest 23 suspects

By Christopher Oji