

In June 2022, Ikechukwu Onachukwu, a Nigerian rapper, disclosed that his in-law died at Queen of the Holy Innocents Secondary School, Ogwume, in Ideato LGA.

“This is Obinna, 14 years of age, my in-law. Cousin to my wife. He was found at 1am dead in the boarding house at this school. Class? SS2, senior hostel. Beaten up, bruised. So many holes in this story.

“And, frankly, I’m sick of these happenings. Now it has come to my doorstep. This is outrageous. I urge every media portal to help bring light to the happenings surrounding this event and every other event concerning these children who we confidently give to schools to look after. No child should have to die,” he said.
