

4 2 feared dead during Osun Assembly election

From Lateef Dada,
Osogbo

He was rushed to the hospital by the officers of the Nigerian Army.

4 TWO persons have been feared dead in the House of Assembly election held in Osun State on Saturday.

A middle-age man identified as Gbenga, who was said to be drunk, rammed into an army barricade and had an accident.

4 Also, the spokesperson of the Nigerian Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC), Osun State Command, Kehinde Adeleke, confirmed the killing of a party agent at Isedo 1, Oloponda Ward 2, Unit 5 in Ila-Orangun. She said the alleged killer had been detained.